

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT
FOR THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
MADISON COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

2009-C-6

WHEREAS, there has been a substantial increase in the number of filings of Real Estate Foreclosures in Madison County, and

WHEREAS, a procedure is needed to process these cases in an orderly fashion;

THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered:

1. It shall be the responsibility of the Plaintiff in a Real Estate Foreclosure case to advise the Clerk of the Court in writing as to when all Defendants have been served and the date for the answers of all Defendants has expired.
2. Upon notification by the Plaintiff that a Defendant has answered and the date for the answer of all Defendants has expired, the Clerk of the Court shall, pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 218, set a Case Management Conference and notify the parties of same.
3. Pursuant to Section 2-1005 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, 735 ILCS 5/2-1005, as to the Plaintiff, any time after any Defendant has appeared or after the time within which all Defendants are required to appear has expired, the Plaintiff may file a Motion for Summary Judgment.
4. Dispositive Motions, including Motions for Summary Judgment, which may be set by represented parties or set by the Clerk in the case of unrepresented parties, may be set at the same time as the Case Management Conference.
5. No party shall set any Dispositive Motion prior to the first Case Management Conference.

It is further ordered that this order be filed in the office of the Circuit Clerk of Madison County, Illinois and said order shall be made available to members of the bar and public.

DATED: July 31, 2009
